12. Training and Development

The Company may, if required, conduct formal training programmes for its Independent Directors. The training programmes may include any or all of the following:

- Board roles and responsibilities, whilst seeking to build working relationship among the Board members,

- Company's vision, strategic direction, core values, ethics and corporate governance practices,
- Familiarization with financial matters, management team and business operations,
- Meetings with stakeholders, visits to business locations and meetings with senior and middle management.

The Company may, as may be required, support Directors to continually update their skills and knowledge and improve their familiarity with the Company and its business. The Company will fund/arrange for training on all matters which are common to the full Board.

13. Performance Appraisal / Evaluation Process

Annually, the Board evaluates the effectiveness of its functioning, that of the Committees and of individual Directors. The Board, through NRC, seeks feedback of Directors on various parameters such as:

- Degree of fulfillment of key responsibilities towards stakeholders (by way of monitoring corporate governance practices, participation in the long-term strategic planning etc.);
- The structure, composition and role clarity of the Board and Committees;
- Extent of co-ordination and cohesiveness between the Board and its Committees;
- Effectiveness of the deliberations and process management;
- Board/Committee culture and dynamics; and
- Quality of relationship between Board Members and the Management.

The Chairman of the Board will have one-on-one meetings with the Independent Directors and the Chairman of NRC will have one-on-one meetings with the Executive and Non-Executive Directors. These meetings are intended to obtain Directors' inputs on effectiveness of the Board/Committee processes.

14. Disclosures, other directorships and business interests

It is accepted and acknowledged that you have business interests other than those of the Company and have declared conflicts, if any that are apparent at present. In the event that you become aware of any potential conflict of interest with your position as Director of the Company, you shall promptly disclose the same to the Chairman and the Company Secretary and provide such other disclosures and information as may be required under the applicable laws. By signing this letter, you hereby confirm that as on date of this letter, you have no such conflict of interests with your existing directorships.

Upon any change in circumstances which may affect your status as an Independent Director, you agree to promptly provide a declaration under Section 149(7) of the Act.

15. Memberships of other boards

It is expected that you will not serve on the boards of competing companies. Apart from the applicable law and good corporate governance practices, there are no other additional limitations.

16. Information on meetings

Dates for Board meetings in the ensuing year are decided in advance. Most Board meetings are held at the Registered Office of the Company. The agenda and sent to the Board in advance. The Board meets at least once a quarter to review the quarterly results and other items on the agenda and also on the occasion of the Annual General Meeting of the shareholders. Additional meetings are held, when necessary. Committees of the Board usually meet the day before the formal Board meeting, or whenever the need arises for transacting business. The recommendations of the Committees are placed before the Board for necessary approval.

The Board has full and unfettered access to any information of the Company, and to any employee of the Company. At Board meetings, the Board invites managers of the Company when additional details into the items being discussed are required.

17. Independent Directors' discussion

Annually and when required, the Independent Directors meet without the presence of Non-Independent Directors and members of the Management. At this meeting, the Independent Directors inter alia evaluate the performance of the Non-Independent Directors and the Board of Directors as a whole, evaluate the performance of the Chairman of the Board and discuss aspects relating to the quality, quantity and timeliness of the flow of information between the Company, the Management and the Board.
